

Project manager , Software developers

Netters,

An international firm is putting together a consulting team for a huge educational project in Uganda and is looking for the following experts to include on the team:

1. Project manager –(1 expert)

-with a relevant masters degree and at least 8 years experience in implementing ICT systems and demonstrated experience in the use of mobile technology for data collection and monitoring

2. Software developers (3 experts)

– with a relevant degree and with 5 years' experience in developing, customizing, and maintaining open source software. Shall have extensive experience in object oriented programming

Those interested with fitting profiles are requested to contact me offline
On ekmusisi@gmail.com

Edward